New York, N.Y.

Dear Mr. Motley:

I wish to thank you for your kindness in permitting Mr. Sprague to have a leave of absence so that he could assist Mr. Correa, Mr. Jackson and me in the preparation of a report on our intelligence set-up at the request of the National Security Council.

Mr. Sprague made a most useful and constructive contribution to the work of our group and we felt ourselves very fortunate to have the benefit of his services.

We are grateful to you for having made this possible.

Sincerely,

A. W. DULLES
